THEME OVERVIEW

The speed and scale of urbanisation in the world is unprecedented. Thus it is not surprising that the rise of city diplomacy is challenging the monopoly of the state in diplomacy.

Increasingly, cities, on their own merits, as well as building on networked arrangements, are an important actor in international relations.

The cultural dimension of their activity is complex comprising interconnected economic, social, political and environmental strands.

These two events will have you getting a behind the scenes meeting with cultural managers and leaders of flagship arts and cultural institutions playing important roles in New York’s visibility and influence on the global stage. Meet and learn from experts who can unravel the complexities, share resources and lead exciting discussions.

“’The ENCATC Study Tour was a non-traditional meeting in a very interesting region. The people of the organization did an excellent job. The professionals in charge of sharing the academic experiences were very well chosen. The program was developed as planned. The participating group had opportunities for effective interrelationship. I believe that the expected objectives were achieved, but above all I praise the methodology in situ.’ Maria Jenkins from FECERED, participant to the ENCATC Study Tour in the Emirates (2017)

“’The ENCATC Academy is a unique opportunity to acquire and share knowledge and to create/develop networks. It gives us the opportunity to be in contact not only with policy makers, cultural managers or researchers, but with the important knowledge and know-how that is behind all them.’ ENCATC Academy participant (2017)
