

26th ENCATC Congress

Beyond EYCH2018. What is the cultural horizon?

Opening up perspectives to face ongoing transformations

26-29 September 2018 in Bucharest, Romania

KEY QUESTIONS

We cannot disregard how intercultural interaction, the planet's sustainability, terrorism, and the digital shift are shocking, breaking down, and transforming our individual, societal and economic symbols, status and order, towards unknown dimensions and directions.

In the framework of the European Year of Cultural Heritage, ENCATC calls on the need to define in advance a response to these great ongoing issues. There is a call to open up for a deeper reflection on the intersections between past, present, and future-making practices and legacies.

To build comprehensive forward-looking scenarios, knowledge, skills and competences to enable such a transition, there is a need for a contingent approach to cultural management and policy education, research and practice and for innovative research.

During the Congress eminent experts from all over the world will share different points of view, analyse the latest research available, and answer questions:

- What is the cultural horizon for Europeans?
- Are we maintaining cultural continuity or disrupting it?
- How do we reconcile the old order with the new one?
- How can we take into account every upheaval affecting our countries, European values, and affecting us and our organisations on a daily basis?
