

EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF CULTURAL MANAGEMENT AND POLICY

CALL FOR ARTICLES:

- 1) Volume 9 nr 1 (2019): Thematic issue on cultural heritage
- 2) Volume 9 nr 2 (2019): General issue on new advancements in the cultural and creative domains

DEADLINE EXTENDED: 26 April 2019

Launched in 2011, the ENCATC Journal of Cultural Management and Policy is now changing its name to European Journal of Cultural Management and Policy (ISSN 2663-5771). The journal publishes two issues annually and provides an open access and interdisciplinary platform for original research work from the cultural field. The objective of the European Journal of Cultural Management and Policy is to stimulate the debate on the topics of cultural management and cultural policy among scholars, educators, policy makers, and cultural managers. The Journal encourages multidisciplinary perspectives and aims at connecting theory and practice in the realm of the cultural sector.

Today, 5 April, ENCATC is now launching calls for two issues: A thematic and a general. The first call is for a thematic issue following the topic of 2018 ENCATC Annual Congress: 'Beyond EYCH2018. What is the cultural horizon? Opening up perspectives to face ongoing transformations'. ENCATC now invites submissions for this Volume 9 nr 1 thematic issue of the European Journal of Cultural Management and Policy, which will be issued in December 2019. Submissions are encouraged to address the critical and inclusive views of cultural heritage and its relationship with other cultural and creative sectors:

- 1) Understanding heritage as a phenomenon: Philosophical foundations, ethical, managerial and policy implications, cultural embeddedness, and contextual constraints.
- 2) Post-colonial and neo-colonial practices in heritage making, management, tourism, and culture-led development programmes to combat inequalities and asymmetrical power distribution in the world.
- 3) From cultural heritage to heritage communities – Cultural and managerial transformations. What are the challenges for cultural management and policy education, research, and practice?
- 4) Cultural management and policy education to tackle ongoing transformations. What is the role of education? Are the current education programmes adequate? Are there any new educational needs? What are the main implications on pedagogical practices and teaching methodologies?

- 5) Cross-sectoral approach to cultural heritage sustainability and heritage-led innovation: How the other sectors and areas of cultural management and policy could connect with, contribute to, and be affected by cultural heritage? How does the cross-sectoral approach affect professions and management in the cultural and creative sector? What are the best and worst practices?

The second call is for a general issue on new advancements in the cultural and creative domains. We here invite submissions for the Volume 9 nr 2 general issue of the European Journal of Cultural Management and Policy, which will be issued in December 2019.

The deadline for all article submissions to both issues is Friday, 26 April 2019. The received articles will go through a double-blind peer review process. After this, authors will be informed whether the article has been accepted or not. The editors reserve the right to make a first prior selection in case a big amount of papers is received. Please check all the important dates below.

Please check both the guidelines for submission and the article template to be used. We kindly ask you to follow them as closely as possible.

Please send your article manuscripts to publications@encatc.org and indicate in the title of your message which issue nr 1 (thematic) or nr 2 (general) you target your submission to.

We are also pleased to announce to you that the 8th Volume of the ENCATC Journal of Cultural Management and Policy (2018) is already online. It can be accessed here.

Please let us know if you need any further information. Looking forward to receiving your contributions.
