

ENCATC

The European network on cultural management and policy

WHO WE ARE

Established in 1992

ENCATC is an independent European-rooted network with a global outreach of

More than 100 members active in the broad field of cultural management and policy.

In over 40 countries

Our mission is to stimulate the development of cultural management and cultural policy education in Europe and beyond, engaging and responding to new developments in politics, economics, societies, and technology.

Our members are higher education institutions, training centres, cultural organisations, public authorities, and artists who make an impact on cultural management and policy as well as the education of students and lifelong learning of cultural managers worldwide.

Our beliefs are in the power of cultural management and policy education to innovate and make the cultural sector strong and sustainable.

ENCATC is an NGO in official partnership with UNESCO

Co-funded by the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union

WE AIM TO

Develop and influence policies in culture and education by engaging in advocacy actions.

» Influence

Enable education and cultural stakeholders to operate transnationally, find new audiences, share ideas, projects, methodologies, experiences and research.

» Network

Offer opportunities to education and cultural stakeholders to enhance and strengthen their knowledge, skills, competencies and abilities through a wide range of activities and projects.

» Educate

Anticipate the future and better understand the past by promoting access to cutting-edge research in the fields of cultural management and cultural policy.

TOGETHER

We build a more sustainable cultural sector

by bridging together educators, researchers, practitioners, policy makers and artists in cross-sectorial partnerships.

We build knowledge societies

by the transfer of information and knowledge inside and outside the network.
