

CONFLICT OF INTEREST FORM

In order to ensure the highest integrity nominations to the ENCATC Award for Outstanding Contribution, you are requested to duly complete the COI form. You are required to disclose any circumstances that could give rise to a conflict of interest, i.e. any situation where your interests may compromise or may reasonably be perceived to compromise your capacity to act independently and in the public interest in making a nomination for the ENCATC Award for Outstanding Contribution.

Please submit the completed COI form as part of your application to nominate individuals, groups of people and organizations for the ENCATC Award for Outstanding Contribution.

Please note that having a declared interest does not necessarily mean having a conflict of interest. Answering "Yes" to a question on this COI form does not automatically disqualify your nomination form. ENCATC will review your answers determine whether a conflict of interest relevant to the subject at hand exists. Where ENCATC concludes that no conflict of interest exists, your nomination form is eligible.

"Conflict of interest" (COI) means any situation where an individual has an interest that may compromise or be reasonably perceived to compromise the individual's capacity to act independently and in the public interest.

You must declare relevant interests of your immediate family members.

"Immediate family member" means the individual's spouse, children and parents. "Spouse" includes a partner with whom the individual has a registered non marital regime. "Children" means the child(ren) the individual and the spouse have in common, the own child(ren) of the individual and the own child(ren) of the spouse.

If you do not describe relevant interests, your COI form will be considered incomplete and, therefore, your nomination form shall be rejected.
